This terms sheet (Terms Sheet) sets out the key terms and conditions applicable to the notes referred to in this Terms Sheet (the Notes). This Terms Sheet should be read in conjunction with the deed poll dated 18 October 2007, as amended from time to time, including most recently on 1 July 2019 (Deed Poll).

Unless the context otherwise requires, capitalised terms used in this Terms Sheet have the same meanings given to them in the Deed Poll.

Important Notice

This offer of Notes by ASB Bank Limited (ASB) is made in reliance upon the exclusion in clause 19 of schedule 1 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 (FMCA).

The Notes have identical rights, privileges, limitations and conditions (except for the interest rate and maturity date) as ASB's medium term notes maturing on;

(together, the Quoted Notes).

Accordingly, the Notes are the same class as the Quoted Notes for the purposes of the FMCA and the Financial Markets Conduct Regulations 2014 (FMCR).

ASB is subject to a disclosure obligation that requires it to notify certain material information to NZX Limited (NZX) for the purpose of that information being made available to participants in the market and that information can be found by visiting www.nzx.com/companies/ABB.

The Quoted Notes are the only debt securities of ASB that are currently quoted on the NZX Debt Market and in the same class as the Notes. An investor will receive a holding statement from the Registrar within 5 Business Days of the initial date of quotation or settlement of any trades, which will also include a CSN. If an investor does not have a FIN, it is expected that one will be sent as a separate communication by the Registrar. If an investor has an account with a NZX participant and has not received a FIN by the date the investor wants to trade Notes, the NZX participant can arrange to obtain the FIN from the Registrar. The NZX participant may be charged for requesting a FIN from the Registrar and may pass this cost on to the investor.

Repayment of Principal Amount	ASB will repay the Principal Amount of the Notes on the Maturity Date.
Early Redemption	Noteholders have no right to require ASB to redeem their Notes prior to the Maturity Date. No call or optional redemption events are applicable to the Notes.
Events of Default	If an Event of Default occurs (as defined in clause 14.1 of the Deed Poll), a Noteholder may, by notice to ASB declare all of the Notes held by that Noteholder to be due and payable on the next Business Day after service of the notice unless, prior to that date, ASB has cured or otherwise made good all Events of Default subsisting prior to that date. The Events of Default are described in the Deed Poll. In summary, these include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if ASB does not pay any interest on the Notes within 14 days of the due date; or • if ASB becomes insolvent, or applies for, consents to, or suffers the appointment of a liquidator or receiver of ASB or any of its assets or undertakings, or ASB enters into any arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors. If the Notes are declared due and payable prior to the Maturity Date, interest will be payable at the Interest Rate from the most recent Interest Payment Date to and excluding the date of repayment.
Repo-Eligibility	Application will be made to the Reserve Bank of New Zealand for the Notes to be included as eligible securities for domestic market operations.
Governing law	New Zealand
Approved issuer levy	ASB proposes to register the Notes for approved issuer levy (AIL) and, where it is eligible to do so in respect of interest to which non-resident withholding tax applies, to pay AIL in lieu of deducting non-resident withholding tax, unless the Noteholder notifies the Registrar (and the Registrar gives its consent) that non-resident withholding tax should be withheld. If the Notes qualify for the 0% rate of AIL, ASB intends to apply the 0% rate. Any AIL paid by ASB other than at the 0% rate will be deducted from the interest paid to the relevant Noteholder. ASB is not eligible to pay AIL in respect of interest paid on a Note where the Note is held jointly and at least one of the joint Noteholders is a New Zealand tax resident. Withholding tax will be deducted from such interest at the applicable resident rate, as required by law. Non-resident Noteholders may then claim a refund from Inland Revenue to the extent that tax was withheld in excess of their applicable non-resident withholding tax rate (taking into account any applicable double tax treaty).
Resident withholding tax	New Zealand resident withholding tax (RWT) will be deducted from interest paid to New Zealand tax resident Holders at the relevant rate unless a valid RWT exemption certificate has been provided (or other evidence of exempt status acceptable to ASB). ASB will not pay any further amounts on account of such deductions of RWT or otherwise reimburse or compensate the relevant Noteholder.

FATCA	FATCA means the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act provisions, sections 1471 through 1474 of the United States Internal Revenue Code (including any regulations or official interpretations issued, agreements entered into or non-US laws enacted with respect to those provisions). If a Noteholder is a US taxpayer or, in some cases, a non-US entity with substantial US owners, then in order to comply with FATCA, it is possible that ASB (or, if Notes are held through another financial institution, such other financial institution) may be required to request certain information from that Noteholder or the beneficial owners of the Notes, which information may in turn be provided to the Inland Revenue Department and/or the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Depending on when the IRS publishes certain FATCA related regulations, ASB may also be required to withhold US tax on some portion of payments in relation to Notes at a future date if such information is not provided or if payments are made to certain foreign financial institutions that have not entered into an agreement with the IRS (and are not otherwise exempt from, or deemed to comply with, FATCA). If ASB is required to make any deduction or withholding in connection with FATCA, ASB will not pay any further amounts on account of such deduction or withholding or otherwise reimburse or compensate the relevant Noteholder. This information is based on regulations and guidance issued by the US Department of Treasury and the IRS as at the date of this Terms Sheet. Future regulations, guidance or international agreements implementing the same may affect the application of FATCA to ASB, Noteholders or beneficial owners of the Notes.
Common Reporting Standard	Common Reporting Standard (CRS) is a global framework for the collection, reporting, and exchange of financial account information about people and entities investing outside of their tax residence jurisdiction. If a Noteholder is a non-New Zealand tax resident or, in some cases, an entity with non-New Zealand tax resident controlling persons, then in order to comply with CRS, it is possible that ASB (or, if Notes are held through another financial institution, such other financial institution) may be required to request certain information from that Noteholder or the beneficial owners of the Notes, which information may in turn be provided to the Inland Revenue Department and/or a non-New Zealand tax authority.
