Hobson Wealth Partners accredited as NZX participant

NZX has accredited Hobson Wealth Partners Limited as a NZX cash market trading and clearing participant.

Hobson Wealth Partners is the first New Zealand based participant to join the exchange since the NZX Clearing House was launched in 2010.

Hobson Wealth Partners Managing Director Warren Couillault commented: "This is an important development for Hobson Wealth and its clients as well as the New Zealand Market. We are excited about this important strategic initiative as we continue to look at ways we can further improve our services."

NZX Head of Market Development & Clearing Benjamin Phillips commented: "Hobson Wealth's accreditation provides increased choice for investors looking to access the New Zealand market, and reflects progress on the exchange's strategic commitment to grow its participant base. We are excited to welcome Hobson Wealth as an NZX cash market trading and clearing participant, and congratulate them on this milestone."

Hobson Wealth Partners' will commence its activities as an NZX cash market trading and clearing participant on Monday 2 July 2018.

About Hobson Wealth Partners

Hobson Wealth Partners is a team of private wealth management advisors operating out of offices in Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch. Formerly known as Macquarie Private Wealth, Hobson Wealth is now owned by a team of dedicated and experienced professionals, with Macquarie retaining a shareholding, who continue to utilise the first-class research capabilities and global reach of Macquarie. It offers a diverse array of services to clients - from complete wealth management and advice, to equities and fixed-income sales trading. Named in recognition of Captain William Hobson, Hobson Wealth Partners epitomises the same pioneering spirit, diligence and visionary leadership of New Zealand's first Governor.
